

ICPM-Rotman Pension Governance Education Program (PGEP)

Since 2011

PGEP returns October 2024

ICPM and the University of Toronto's Rotman School of Management Executive Programs have designed a unique international board governance program that is specifically targeted to Board members and trustees of pension and other long-horizon investment institutions: the Pension Governance Education Program (PGEP).

We welcome Judy Payne and Susan Christoffersen as new Academic Co-Directors of the PGEP (effective June 2024). Judy brings 25 years of working with pension boards, most recently as the Executive Director of BC Municipal Pension Board of Trustees. Susan, an ICPM Board member, is also the Dean of the Rotman School of Management and the William A. Downe BMO Chair, Professor of Finance.

"Boards and trustees of pension funds from around the world are facing many of the same challenges. PGEP provides a valuable opportunity to learn from the international community, understand different approaches, and gain fresh perspectives from peers at other organizations."

Judy Payne
PGEP Academic Co-Director

"PGEP is tailored to pension funds and helps their boards and trustees understand the fundamentals of pension fund governance. It provides a unique opportunity for pension leaders to stay on top of the latest industry challenges and to exchange ideas and best practices with peers - deepening both their network and knowledge."

Susan Christoffersen
Dean, Rotman School of Management & PGEP Academic Co-Director

The 3.5 day curriculum will be led by a high-quality team of top academics and renowned practitioners. Content reflects the top priorities and challenges facing Board members and trustees of long-horizon investment institutions today.

Networking events, case studies, group discussions and team assignments ensure dynamic interactions among participants throughout the program, which foster global pension sector contacts that remain long after the program.

Consider integrating the PGEP as a valuable step for your incoming Board or Committee chairs.
